

REGULATIONS OF THE MORAVIAN SQUARE MARKET

The purpose of the Moravian Square Market is to provide a farmers market for the community and support local ministries for the hungry.

1. Persons wanting to sell at the Moravian Square Market must submit an application before they plan to begin selling. Applications are available at the Rural Hall Moravian Church website (www.rhmc.org/market). The fee to participate in the Moravian Square Market is $5 per week or $100 for the season. All vendor fees will be donated to a local food ministry at the end of the season.
2. Baked goods must be made in an inspected kitchen. Vendors must provide a copy of their meat license prior to selling meat.
3. The Market Committee has the right to terminate a vendor's contract for any reason.
4. Vendors may authorize family members or employees to represent them at the Market as long as the family member(s) or employee(s) are listed as a proxy on the Moravian Square Market application form.
5. The Moravian Square Market will operate on the grounds of Rural Hall Moravian Church, 7939 Broad Street, Rural Hall, NC (in the side gravel lot). In the event of rain, the market can be moved to the Pavilion at Rural Hall Moravian Church. The Moravian Square Market will operate on Thursdays from 2:30 pm-6:00 pm. The selling season will begin April/May and go through the end of September/October depending on fall frost and customer traffic.
